

The Idea Center

Jennifer M - 2020-02-03 - Special Features

The Idea Center in ESP is a centralized location for distributors to access ASI's award winning editorial content to gain insight when creating promotions for events and industries. Located on the main toolbar, the Idea Center is easily accessible.

Within the Idea Center homepage, there are two main sections: Events and Industries. Both sections will provide a broad selection of topics which contain popular search terms, as well as articles and videos where applicable. Clicking on a topic thumbnail will open to the information page.

Education

Looking to ramp up promotional products sales? Sell a wealth of products to the education market, the top-buying sector for distributors. Fundraisers, teams, PTAs, universities – they all purchase a variety of promotional products every single day.

Pro Tip:
It's not only high schools and universities that have use for promotional products. Offer your expertise to elementary schools, kindergartens and even preschools in previously underserved markets.
