

Advertising Opportunities with ASI

Tamika C - 2020-12-10 - Marketing Opportunities

ASI Suppliers can take advantage of numerous advertising opportunities through a variety of mediums. Marketers and advertisers are always looking to create engagement with their buyers and ASI®, has been creating it for the past 60 years! We offer simple and direct guidance to assist our supplier members in their advertising investments.

Digital Advertising

ASI® has a growing digital footprint that will help enhance your industry credibility and increase brand awareness. With ESP® advertising, you can put your products directly in front of distributors as they're searching for products like yours or looking for ideas. You can also extend your brand through email marketing and e-newsletter advertising or reach distributors outside ESP through retargeting ads. ESP is the industry's #1 business platform.

ASI's digital advertising opportunities include:

- ESP: Distributors use it every day to find product solutions for their clients and manage their businesses.
- EmailExpress: Capture the attention of distributors with customized, targeted EmailExpress™ messaging. Generate interest, connect with prospects and track the success of your campaign.
- Connect: Connect™ is a prospecting and credit reporting tool allowing you to instantly qualify leads and safeguard your company. Connect helps you target new audiences, identify markets and instantly verify information on current and prospective distributors.
- e-Newsletters: ASI Supplier members can also advertising on ASI's E-Newsletters - combining award-winning editorial content with the convenience of digital media.
- Web & Video: From hot promo product videos to the best tips and advice, ASI-TV has you covered!
- ASI Central: ASICentral.com is your primary hub for distributors and suppliers in the promotional products industry.
- ESP Buyer's Box: Get your products, sample packs and catalogs into the right hands.
