fASIIlitate FAQs

What is fASIIlitate?

fASIIlitate™ is executive-level, invitation-only hosted buyer event from ASI® is designed to foster high-level distributor and supplier relationships while creating lucrative business opportunities.

What is the format of fASIIlitate?

During a three-day schedule, we preset private 20 minute meetings between pre-qualified, invited distributors and highly sought after suppliers, with time throughout the day and evening to check in with the office or catch up on important business calls. Plus, after-hour networking and group meals deliver an interactive forum to foster new relationships and connect with other high-level professionals.

When is fASIIlitate?

The dates and locations of upcoming fASIIlitate events are available on the fASIIlitate site.

How much does it cost to attend fASIIlitate?

There is no cost for an invited distributor. Coach round-trip airfares, all accommodations and meals for invited million-dollar sales producers are covered by fASIIlitate for the duration of the event.

Why should I attend fASIIlitate versus other similar industry events?

We have the resources and technology to identify who's who in the industry and only invite those members to this event. We not only have the best accommodations, but the quality of participating fASIIlitate suppliers are the best partners in the industry.
